Additional remarks and explanations

Auto-Graphics continually strives to make our system accessible “out-of-the-box” and is engaged in ongoing accessibility testing (and when necessary, reparation). Since our pages are generated dynamically and can differ based on large number of factors such as user preferences, system setup, browser, choice of assistive technology etc., it is not feasible for Auto-Graphics to test every page under every possible condition. For best results, we recommend using Firefox web browser with Windows OS. If any page is found to be inaccessible despite our efforts, Auto-Graphics investigates—and when necessary, repairs—any reported accessibility issues as soon as possible.
